OUR NEW “LOOK”

Beginning with this issue, the Department of Human Resources’ monthly job bulletin not only takes on a new look, but a new “read” as well. In an effort to further the County of Butte’s commitment to provide the best possible service to its citizens, beginning in 2007 the job bulletin will also contain information about the County, its people and departments, the hiring process, and many other subjects that will be of interest to those seeking to become members of the Butte County family of employees.

But our new “look” isn’t limited to just this publication. Also with the new year, the Department of Human Resources has completed a major facelift of its website; making it more accessible, and easier to navigate, with more information of use to applicants than ever before. Logon and take a look at www.buttecounty.net/personnel/. Use the online feedback form and tell us what you think.

In February watch for the return of the Department’s job interest cards. A way for those applicants who are interested in only receiving information about specific types of openings, this service will be available in both the original hardcopy card format, and electronically from the website.

Finally, this entire bulletin is available in an electronic format as part of the Department’s monthly email service. Sign up online at www.buttecounty.net/personnel/subscribe.asp.

- The County of Butte has many careers to choose from.

WHAT IS A CONTINUOUS RECRUITMENT?

Connie Meahan, Human Resources Analyst

Simply stated, a continuous recruitment is one that does not have a closing date - applications for the position may be accepted at any time as long as the recruitment is still listed on the County's monthly job flier. In contrast, the County's regular (non-continuous) recruitments have a closing date beyond which no further applications will be accepted.

While some of the positions placed on continuous recruitment may have current vacancies, others may not. There are a number of factors that the County uses in determining if a position should be recruited for on a "continuous" basis. Some of these reasons may include the critical nature of the services that some of these jobs perform, the number of recurring vacancies in a particular classification, past difficulties in attracting a sufficient number of qualified applicants to fill current vacancies, and/or the need to provide ongoing services to the County's citizens.

When vacancies occur in a classification that is on continuous recruitment, the applications that are currently on file with the Department of Human Resources are screened for minimum qualifications by one of the Department's Analysts. Following the initial screening, the process of establishing a list of qualified candidates for a continuous recruitment is the same as that used for the County's regular, non-continuous recruitments; with qualified applicants continuing on in the recruitment process.

Eligibility Lists for continuous and non-continuous recruitments alike normally remain in effect for a maximum of one year. However, the Director of Human Resources may elect to abolish an Eligibility List before a year has expired. Similarly, she may also choose to extend the life of a List beyond this date.

THE APPLICATION/SELECTION PROCESS

Applications will be accepted only during the open filing period. Applications can be obtained from the Department of Human Resources from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. The Department of Human Resources must receive completed applications no later than 5 p.m. on the final filing date. Postmarks will not be accepted. Resumes will not be accepted in lieu of a properly completed Butte County Application for Examination. Applicants requesting special testing accommodation should notify the Human Resources Department five (5) days before the scheduled testing date.

Applicants are screened on the basis of overall education and experience qualifications. Applicants meeting the overall qualifications will be scheduled for an examination, which is given to establish an eligibility list from which appointments to vacancies may be made. The examination process may include application review; written, oral, and/or performance examinations; and in some cases a physical agility test may be required. Applicants will be notified by mail as to whether or not they have met eligibility requirements to further participate in the recruitment process. An original application must be submitted for each individual position applied for. Be sure to state the position title on each separate application submitted. Failure to provide any of the required information will result in the rejection of your application.

The Butte County Application for Examination with a revision date of 06-01-04, or later will be accepted. All prior revisions of the Application will be returned without review.

Employees may also elect to participate in a cafeteria plan, deferred compensation programs, and supplemental life insurance.

CONTINUOUS RECRUITMENTS

Any candidate already on a current eligibility list, who submits another application within one (1) year for the same continuous recruitment, will be removed from that list. They will be re-evaluated for minimum qualifications and be ranked based on the most recent application submitted. If a written test is required, the ranking will be based on the score of the most recent test.
