PEST CONTROL SERVICES SALES AGENT

CHICO

For more than 20 years, Hunters Services has built a reputation as one of Northern California's leading providers of termite and pest control services, safeguarding over homes and businesses against all types of pests throughout the state.

What is this position about? Our Outside Sales Representatives play a key position at Hunters working with home owners, and businesses to ensure they have the right products and services to protect their investment from termites and other pests.

Equipped with a company vehicle and excellent industry training, our Sales Reps are out in the communities Hunters serves meeting with new and existing customers. Your visit would typically begin with an inspection of the home to diagnose the issue (which may include getting in attics and crawlspaces) and be followed by a presentation of a recommended Service Plan to the customer. Here are a few additional details of what you would be doing each day:

Documenting descriptions of property and recording accurate measurements of areas inspected. Estimating job costs and preparing Service Plan recommendations. Preparing appropriate specs and treating instructions for the agreed to Service Plan. Contacting customers after service is performed to ensure satisfaction and develop additional prospects. Prospecting and developing new sales leads. Continually building product knowledge and refining sales techniques.

What do I need to be successful? Being a high school graduate/having a GED and a valid driver's license are both requirements. 6 to 12 months of sales experience or prior sales training is highly desired, but not required. You are highly motivated, have a strong work ethic and enjoy the selling process. You are able to build rapport easily and establish trust, leading to lasting customer relationships. You have strong communications skills - impersonal, written, presenting.

You can effectively present information to customers one-on-one and in small groups. You have a good aptitude for basic math - necessary for doing calculations related to the sales process. Of course, given our business and the nature of this role, you should be comfortable working outside and in confined spaces like crawl spaces and attics. For safety reasons (rebreathers have to be sealed to your face) our Outside Sales Professionals aren't able to have facial hair. Why Hunters? In addition to being part of an elite team, here are some other highlights of what we offer members of the Hunters Team Member.

Comprehensive training and licensure, all paid by the company. Highly competitive compensation program with uncapped commission potential - average earnings of $40-60,000 in first year. Company provided vehicle (that you can take home with you at night). Opportunities for advancement and career growth - including paths into management level roles. Medical Short/long-term Disability and Life Insurance. Paid time off.
