LIVESTOCK REGISTRATION

REUNITES STRAY LIVESTOCK AND OWNERS

PROMPTLY /EFFICIENTLY
HELPS IN DISASTER RESPONSE
REDUCES COST AND TIME

WHAT IS IT?

A free program designed to enable Animal Control Officers to locate and notify owners of stray livestock without resorting to impounding and transporting those animals.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Registrations are filed by location in the Animal Control Dispatch office. When a call is received concerning loose livestock from a specific area, a dispatcher compares the description given with those of all livestock registered in that area. When a match is discovered the owner is called and notified.

WHY REGISTER LIVESTOCK?

Prompt “roundup” of stray livestock prevents injury to the animals or people, and damage to neighbors’ property – all of which the owner is legally and financially responsible for. It also eliminates or reduces charges by Animal Control for costs incurred during handling of animals.

This is a free service offered solely to help reunite stray/lost livestock, with owners in the Event of emergency situations.
