Oroville, CA – Butte County officials announced today that the Chief Administrative Officer for Butte County, Brian Haddix, announced his resignation effective March 24, 2009. Mr. Haddix started working for Butte County on November 7, 2007 after working for Tulare County and the State of California.

“It’s been a privilege to serve the Butte County Board of Supervisors and the residents of the County. I appreciate the opportunity to serve in this capacity,” said Mr. Haddix. “I look forward to returning to Fresno where my family still resides and pursue other opportunities. I leave Butte County in the hands of capable staff that will continue to work with this seasoned Board through these difficult economic times.”

“We thank Mr. Haddix for his service to Butte County and wish him well in his future endeavors. We understand that he wants to return to the area where his family still lives,” said Bill Connelly, the Chair of Butte County Board of Supervisors. “Mr. Haddix will continue to work as the Chief Administrative Officer of Butte County and carry out Board policies until his resignation date.”

The Butte County Board of Supervisors will initiate a nationwide recruitment for a new Chief Administrative Officer.
